

JOSHUA MCHUGH

Now Open, Objet Cafe

THERE'S something for everyone at F. D, the new Midtown boutique owned by Fiona Druckemiller, a philanthropist and collector. That is, everyone who's seeking exquisite new and vintage jewels (the shop boasts an impressive cache of period Cartier and Van Cleef & Arpels), watches, sculptures, Art Deco furniture, photography, first-edition manuscripts and swanky barware. The interior, designed in collaboration with the décor firm Pamela Banker Associates, is best described as cozy chic. "We wanted it to be homey," Mrs. Druckemiller said. "People will hopefully feel comfortable enough to linger, have a coffee or glass of wine, and spend time learning about the objects that interest them." 21 East 65th Street; (212) 772-2440; fionasescape.com.

SANDRA BALLENTINE